

CORPORATIONS FOR THE COMMONWEALTH

Secretary of State Alison Lundergan Grimes, as the Commonwealth's Chief Business Officer and chief advocate for civic engagement, is committed to recognizing individuals and organizations that share her dedication to public service and civic action.

Corporations for the Commonwealth is a program to recognize businesses – large and small – that commit to being leaders in their communities and in Kentucky. Please consider nominating a business from your community based on the criteria below.

One large (more than 50 employees) and one small (50 employees or fewer) business will be chosen from among the nominations.

The deadline for nominations is October 2, 2015.

Criteria for Nomination

Business must have demonstrated:

- A commitment to corporate giving
- A drive to improve local and/or regional social conditions
- A culture of giving within its organization

Eligibility requirements:

- Any for-profit corporation, LLC, or Limited Partnership, large or small, is eligible for this award.
- Nominees must be registered with the Kentucky Office of Secretary of State, and the contribution(s) for which they are being nominated must have impacted the Commonwealth of Kentucky and/or its residents.
- Businesses that receive any direct monetary or political gain for their generosity, or those required by court mandate to give back to the community, are not eligible for consideration.
- Businesses may be recognized for long-term and ongoing commitments or for single acts.
- Nominees must be in compliance with all local and federal laws.

Please use the attached nomination form or complete the form online at www.sos.ky.gov.
